

Craig M. Horowitz

PARTNER

chorowitz@cahill.com

212.701.3856 Phone

Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP

32 Old Slip

New York, NY 10005

Craig Horowitz, the head of Cahill's tax group, has been a partner at Cahill since 1999. Craig's practice is principally focused on mergers and acquisitions, financings and capital markets transactions, private equity and mezzanine investing, international tax planning, workouts and restructurings and tax issues related to real estate investment trusts.

Craig advises many leading investment banks and commercial banks and a number of other public companies, including Arch Capital Group, Broadridge Financial Solutions, Cable One, Icon, Linde and 1-800-FLOWERS.COM.

Craig has been commended in Chambers for being "a very sophisticated tax lawyer who explores all potential angles" and "an extremely well-rounded and knowledgeable tax professional," and in The Legal 500 for being "the best in the business," and "a true professional." Craig was recognized as one of the 2024 Lawdragon 500 Leading Dealmakers in America.

Craig currently serves on the New York State Bar Association's Tax Section Executive Committee as a Co-Chair of the Subcommittee on Cross-Border Capital Markets. He is a principal author of the November 2019 New York State Bar Association Tax Section report on Tax Fungibility of Debt Instruments. The report recommends significant revisions to the rules governing tax fungibility to make the rules better suited for the current capital markets.

Education

New York University, LL.M., Taxation, 1992

Columbia Law School, J.D., 1989, Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar

University of Pennsylvania, B.A., B.S.E., 1986, summa cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa

Practices

Tax

Private Credit

Admission

New York