
London

Associate Recruitment for Cahill's London Leveraged Finance Practice

Late last year Cahill, the No.1 lender side leveraged finance advisor in the US, expanded its finance offering in London with the launch of an English law finance practice and additional New York law finance capability. Further hires have been made this year at both partner and associate level and the London finance practice now comprises of six partners plus a team of experienced associates primarily with Magic Circle/US Elite firm backgrounds. The team has extensive experience in the European loan and high yield markets and primarily focuses on representing lenders on European and cross border transactions in both the syndicated and private credit spaces.

The London practice is now looking for additional English law and US law qualified associates to join this rapidly growing and dynamic team. Ideal candidates for the English law loans practice will have between 1-4 years of experience in European leveraged finance and ideal candidates for the US high yield practice will have between 1-2 years of experience in European leveraged finance.

Candidates must have strong organizational skills and a desire to get involved in business development. They will be team players and self-starters looking to thrive in an environment where they can make a genuine difference. Candidates will be offered excellent training in leveraged finance and the opportunity to work in a genuinely integrated loan and bond practice.

Corporate Junior Associate Search

We are seeking attorneys for associate positions in Cahill's London office for our high yield practice group. Candidates should have one to three years of experience in corporate work, with substantial exposure to capital markets and/or bank lending transactions.

Candidates must have excellent oral and written communication skills, a strong academic background and be admitted to the New York Bar.

This is an excellent opportunity to join the market-leading leveraged finance practice. More information about Cahill's London leveraged finance practice can be found here. More information about our firm can be found here.

To submit a candidate, please submit a resume and transcript directly to Brenda Smith, Director of Administration in our London office, at bsmith@cahill.com.

Corporate Mid-Level Associate Search

We are seeking attorneys for associate positions in Cahill's London office for our high yield practice group. Candidates should have three to six years of experience in corporate work, with substantial exposure to capital markets and/or bank lending transactions.

Candidates must have excellent oral and written communication skills, a strong academic background and be admitted to the New York Bar.

This is an excellent opportunity to join the market-leading leveraged finance practice. More information about Cahill's London leveraged finance practice can be found here. More information about our firm can be found here.

To submit a candidate, please submit a resume and transcript directly to Brenda Smith, Director of Administration in our London office, at bsmith@cahill.com.

About Cahill's Capital Markets & Lending Practice

To learn more about our market-leading leveraged finance practice, please click here.

About the London Team

For further information on the London team and its recent expansion, please click here.

Applications / Further Information

If you are interested in being considered for a role in the London loans practice at Cahill, or you would like to receive more details or benefits information, please contact our Director of Administration Brenda Smith at bsmith@cahill.com.