
Cahill Alumni

Cahill lawyers are among the legal profession's most sought after talent. Cahill has long been regarded as developing associates with both superior legal experience and an unusual degree of business, marketing, negotiation and financial acumen. Cahill is proud to offer heralded opportunities for development, training, mentoring, and networking that prepare our associates for extraordinarily successful careers at the Firm and beyond.

Our alumni have enjoyed celebrated careers as senior executives of public companies, general counsels at Fortune 500 corporations, investment bankers, professors at national law schools, state and federal trial and appellate judges, United States Attorneys and public interest advocates. Others hold or have held senior policy and line positions in business and in all branches of government. Some of our distinguished alumni have found success in the following places:

- Prominent Corporations: AT&T, Cigna Corporation, Deloitte, Google, Microsoft, PayPal, PepsiCo, Samsung Electronics America, Ticketmaster, Uber, The Walt Disney Company, WeWork, Wynn Resorts
