

Friedman Presides at Special Meeting of Council on Foreign Relations

Thursday, October 8, 2009 1:30 PM to 4:00 PM

As part of the C. Peter McColough Series on International Economics presented by the Corporate Program and the Maurice R. Greenberg Center for Geoeconomic Studies, the Council on Foreign Relations hosted a breakfast meeting with Christine Varney, Assistant Attorney General for Antitrust, U.S. Department of Justice.

The meeting, entitled "International Antitrust Law and Policy: Opportunities for Greater Convergence," was on the record and open to the press. Cahill partner Bart Friedman presided and managed the discussion, which included a moderated audience Q&A.
