

Joel Levitin Speaks at the 2012 Midwest Bankruptcy Seminar

Saturday, August 25, 2012 1:00 PM to 10:00 PM

On Friday, August 17, 2012, Joel Levitin participated in two panel discussions at the 2012 Midwest Regional Bankruptcy Seminar.

The first panel discussion was entitled Chapter 11 – Value Gained or Value Lost? The Treatment of Intellectual Property Under the Bankruptcy Code. Joel was joined by Raymond J. Pikna, Jr., Esq. of Wood & Lamping LLP; Craig Chiang, Esq. of Buchalter Nemer; and Theodore Polk of Capstone Partners LLC.

The second discussion was entitled Chapter 11 – Bad Boys Ain't What They Used to Be: Surprises for CMBS Guarantors & Other Developments in Real Estate Restructurings. Joel was joined by Timothy J. Hurley, Esq. of Taft Stettinius & Hollister LLP; Hon. Eugene R. Wedoff of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court Northern District of Illinois; and Laura Davis Jones, Esq. of Pachulski Stang Ziehl & Jones.

Attorney

- Joel H. Levitin

CAHILL GORDON & REINDEL LLP