

JOURNAL

of INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL LAW

CURRENT ISSUES IN SECURITIES LAW: A Panel Discussion at the George Mason School of Law

Join us for discussion of current developments in securities law!

The panel will look at hot issues in corporation finance, enforcement, and investment managements, including the SEC's recently adopted crowdfunding rules, the current controversy over the use of administrative law judges, and the ongoing questions about the relative merits of investment adviser versus broker-dealer regulation.

DATE & TIME: November 13, 2015, 9am
LOCATION: Hazel Hall, Room 120

Registration – 8:30 AM
Panel Discussion – 9 AM
Followed by a Networking Brunch – 10:30 AM – 12 PM

Panelists:

Bradley Bondi, Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP

Thaya Knight, Cato Institute

Robert Plaze, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP

Moderated by: Ron Rubin, U.S. House of Representatives Financial Services Committee