On Friday, November 16, 2018, Cahill Partner, Brad Bondi spoke at the ABA Business Law Section fall meeting in Washington D.C. On the panel, "The Future of Class Actions," Brad discussed recent case law from the US Supreme Court, as well as several circuits, and how it has significantly altered the contours of class action litigation. The panel reviewed decisions such as Spokeo, Tyson, Campbell-Ewald, Epic and Cyan and how they are sure to reverberate through the legal system in the coming years. This program looked at these developments and discuss the implications for the future of class actions.
