

Chérie Kiser Speaks at the PATH Washington Insiders Briefing

Monday, June 10, 2019 1:30 PM to 7:00 PM

On Monday, June 10, 2019, Cahill partner Chérie Kiser spoke at The Partnership for Artificial Intelligence, Automation, and Robotics in Healthcare (PATH) Washington Insiders Briefing. She discussed the Federal Communications Commission and how it has taken an active interest in promoting the use of both telehealth and artificial intelligence in providing access and quality services for healthcare. Through regulation and grant programs (Connected Care, Rural Health Connect2Health, etc.), the Commission has elevated their role in promoting the use of a variety of 21st Century technologies for the delivery of healthcare services. She was joined by speakers Lisa Bari, Shelby Buettner, Cybil Rohrenbeck, Robert Jarrin, Aisling McDonough and Samantha Elleson.
