
Helene Banks Speaks on ESG in M&A Transactions at The Deal Economy: Middle Market Seminar

Wednesday, June 23, 2021 7:00 PM to Thursday, January 1, 1970 12:00 AM

Helene Banks, chair of Cahill's M&A and Corporate Advisory practice groups, spoke on the "ESG in M&A Transactions" panel at The Deal Economy: Middle Market Seminar on Wednesday, June 23. The panel discussed the following questions:

- How are buyers and their investors evaluating targets based on ESG and sustainability transparency?
- How can these efforts affect valuations and sale processes?
- How do sellers ensure they are maximizing their ESG initiatives and show they are making progress on sustainability initiatives?
- What are the most important things for sellers to address when it comes to ESG?

The Deal Economy: Middle Market Seminar featured two days of online sessions exploring the opportunities, obstacles and risks middle-market dealmakers face in the current environment and how to navigate through them.

To view the video playback of the panels, please click here.

For more information, please visit www.thedeal.com.

Helene frequently speaks and writes on ESG, corporate governance, and board diversity issues. Please click here to view highlights.

Attorney

- Helene R. Banks