
Jennifer Ezring Speaks at the IACPM 2021 Virtual Fall Conference

Thursday, November 18, 2021 4:55 PM to Thursday, January 1, 1970 12:00 AM

Partner Jennifer Ezring spoke on the “Managing Leveraged Loan Portfolios” panel at the International Association of Credit Portfolio Managers (IACPM) 2021 Virtual Fall Conference on Thursday, November 18. The panel explored the evolution of credit portfolio managers (CPM), speaking further on the latest developments in evolving structures, credit outlook and its impact, and the implications for CPM.

The IACPM is an industry association established to further the practice of credit exposure management by providing an forum for its member institutions to exchange ideas and take collective action. CPMs have a unique and evolving role in today’s financial markets, and the IACPM offers an excellent forum through which these issues can be identified, understood and addressed.
