
Chérie R. Kiser and Angela F. Collins Presented Communications Law: Special Considerations for Transactions Involving Communication Companies

Tuesday, October 25, 2022 4:00 PM to Sunday, August 24, 2025 5:45 AM

On Tuesday, October 25, Cahill presented a program to discuss potential issues raised by transactions involving communication companies. Presented by partner Chérie R. Kiser and counsel Angela F. Collins, the program discussed (1) best practices for structuring transactions to ensure compliance with the unique regulatory regime applicable to communication companies; (2) the importance of early and thorough communications regulatory due diligence to avoid preliminary decisions that may create unanticipated and costly regulatory roadblocks later; and (3) the regulatory approval process that may have an effect on the consummation of the transaction.
