
Landis Best Speaks at Fordham Law School's Women's Leadership Program

Tuesday, October 4, 2022 1:00 PM to Thursday, January 1, 1970 12:00 AM

On Friday, November 4, partner and chair of Cahill's Women's Initiatives Committee, Landis Best, spoke on the "Looking Ahead: Changing the Law Firm Paradigm for Women in the Law" panel as a part of the Academy for the Advancement of Women in Law, a women's leadership program sponsored by Fordham Law School. The panel addressed best practices for a more diverse, equitable, and inclusive workplace, offer actionable strategies for expanding women's leadership roles in law firms and other organizations and discuss ways in which women can promote themselves in a manner that is authentic and effective.

The Academy for the Advancement of Women in Law program aims to bring attorneys together to share ideas and best practices to create more inclusive environments that enable the advancement of women lawyers globally. Continuing legal education credit was also available for this program. For more information, please click here.

Attorney

- Landis C. Best