
Brock Bosson Moderates “The Future of ESG and Impact Investing: Changing the World or Changing Policies and Priorities?” Presented by The Brookings Institution

Wednesday, January 25, 2023 10:30 PM to Thursday, January 1, 1970 12:00 AM

On Wednesday, January 25, Cahill hosted “The Future of ESG and Impact Investing: Changing the World or Changing Policies and Priorities?,” presented by The Brookings Institution. The event was moderated by Brookings Council member and Cahill partner Brock Bosson, and featured Brookings Global Economy and Development Senior Fellows Emily Gustafsson-Wright and John McArthur, as well as founding director of the Corporate Responsibility Initiative at the Kennedy School of Government and Nonresident Senior Fellow Jane Nelson. The panel explored how regulatory developments, emerging policy and potential shifts in public priorities may impact how companies and investors approach ESG issues in the years to come.

Attorney

- Brockton B. Bosson