
Emeka Chinwuba to Moderate Panel at Proximo Congress 2026: US Energy and Infrastructure Finance

Thursday, June 25, 2026 4:00 AM to Wednesday, June 24, 2026 1:44 AM

Cahill partner Emeka Chinwuba will moderate the panel workshop “ABS for Digital Infrastructure: Charting the Path” at Exile Group’s Proximo Congress 2026: US Energy and Infrastructure Finance Conference, taking place June 24–26, 2026, in Nashville, Tennessee.

The session, scheduled for June 25, will examine the rapidly evolving intersection of digital infrastructure and the US asset-backed securities (ABS) market, with a focus on the trends, opportunities, and challenges shaping the sector.

Joining Emeka on the panel are Nick Beauregard, Investment Director at Principal Asset Management; Ryan Delack, Chief Financial Officer of Surf Internet; Mehdi Khalili, Portfolio Manager at Legal & General Retirement America; and Margaret Osmulski, Principal at Ares Management.

Proximo Congress is the premier gathering of the US energy, infrastructure, and digital infrastructure finance community, bringing together industry leaders to discuss developments across the market.

Cahill partners Adam Dworkin and Peter Rooney, along with counsel Andrew Leedom, will also attend the conference.

Attorney

- Emeka C. Chinwuba

Practices

- Project Finance, Energy & Infrastructure
- Digital Infrastructure Finance