
Gary Kalbaugh to Speak at FinTech and Emerging Payment Systems Conference

Thursday, September 17, 2026 4:00 AM to Thursday, September 10, 2026 9:16 PM

Cahill partner Gary Kalbaugh will speak on the panel “Digital Assets, Crypto & Blockchain – The Oncoming World of Tokenization” as part of the New York City Bar’s FinTech and Emerging Payment Systems Conference.

Alongside co-panelists from leading law firms and financial institutions, Gary will examine the significant changes occurring across the financial sector, including the shift toward decentralized finance and the resulting pressures on existing legal and regulatory frameworks.

The FinTech and Emerging Payment Systems Conference convenes partners and counsel from leading law firms to discuss major developments at the intersection of finance, technology, and law.
