Gary Kalbaugh to Moderate Panel at WSBA Crypto & Blockchain Summit

Thursday, November 5, 2026 5:00 AM to Friday, October 30, 2026 3:32 PM

Cahill partner Gary Kalbaugh will moderate the closing panel “Where It All Converges | Tokenization and the Reinvention of Capital Markets” at the WSBA Crypto & Blockchain Summit in New York City.

Gary and other leading experts speaking on the panel will discuss how tokenization is reinventing capital markets. Other sessions at the summit will cover topics including the institutional adoption of digital assets, the CLARITY Act, and the role of AI, quantum computing, and cybersecurity in finance. The summit will bring together leaders from law, accounting, data, security, and digital asset markets to discuss the future of institutional finance.
