

Record Breaking Week for Cahill's Corporate Finance Practice

Date: 08/13/10

Keeping pace with the recent surge in bond sales in the debt capital markets, Cahill's corporate finance practice lawyers worked on more deals that priced in a single week than in any other in the firm's 91 year history. Representing many of the market's leading investment banks, over the course of the week our corporate lawyers participated in 15 bond financings that were priced for an aggregate principal amount of $14.215 billion.
