
Cahill Teams with the Legal Aid Society to Provide Disaster Relief to Victims of Hurricane Sandy

Date: 11/16/12

Cahill attorneys have partnered with the Legal Aid Society and other local law firms to provide assistance to victims of Hurricane Sandy in New York City. Our attorney volunteers will provide outreach, including guidance with completing FEMA applications, food stamp replacement applications, and emergency food stamp applications. Attorneys will canvass the areas of NYC hardest hit, including Far Rockaway, Coney Island, and Red Hook.

To learn more about The Legal Aid Society's disaster relief efforts, click here.