
Cahill Advises Trico Marine in Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Filing

Date: 10/13/10

Cahill is representing Trico Marine Services Inc. (publicly traded on NASDAQ under TRMA) and certain U.S affiliates ("Trico"), as special and conflicts counsel with respect to litigation matters and corporate and transactional matters in connection with its restructuring efforts in Trico's Chapter 11 bankruptcy case pending in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware. Trico, through debtor and nondebtor subsidiaries, provides subsea services, subsea trenching and protection services, and towing and supply services and vessels, and it had approximately $400 million in direct funded debt obligations upon its filing.
