
Cahill Represents Lead Arrangers of Clondalkin Refinancing

Date: 05/31/13

Cahill represented Deutsche Bank and the other lead arrangers in connection with a new $395,000,000 first lien credit agreement and a new $95,000,000 second lien credit agreement for Clondalkin Acquisition B.V., a Dutch packaging company. The proceeds of the new facilities were used along with proceeds from asset sales and receivables securitizations to refinance the entire existing debt structure of Clondalkin. The deal involved collateral and guarantees in seven countries.
