
Cahill Secures Dismissal of Multi-Billion Dollar Shareholder Class Action Against Deutsche Bank

Date: 06/28/17

External Link: Judge Grants Deutsche's Nix Bid In Russian Trade Row

A Cahill litigation team prevailed on behalf of Deutsche Bank AG in obtaining dismissal of securities fraud claims brought by a purported class of shareholders. A New York federal court granted Deutsche Bank's motion to dismiss all claims, finding, among other things, that plaintiffs failed to allege any material misstatement by Deutsche Bank.

Attorneys

- Charles A. Gilman
- David G. Januszewski