
Cahill Represents Envigo in Acquisition by Labcorp

Date: 06/03/19

Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP represented Envigo, a leading provider of research models and services, in connection with completion of its previously announced transactions including the acquisition by the LabCorp's Covance Drug Development segment of Envigo's nonclinical contract research services business, the acquisition by Envigo's Research Models and Services business of the Covance Research Products business and a multi-year, renewable supply agreement between the parties.

The Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP team representing Envigo was led by corporate partners Kimberly C. Petillo-Décossard, Jonathan A. Schaffzin and Ross E. Sturman and includes corporate counsel Donna Bryan and associates Joseph F. Rosati, Nikolas X. Rodriguez, David A. Rand, and Yilin (Zoey) Zhu; antitrust partner Elai Katz and counsel Lauren Rackow; environmental associate Peter J. Gioello; executive compensation and benefits counsel Mark J. Gelman; intellectual property counsel Alexander M. Kim; litigation counsel Gail E. Johnston; real estate counsel Thomas E. Charbonneau; regulatory associate Peter Mazzone; and tax partner Craig M. Horowitz and associate Samir Kurani.

Attorneys

- Craig M. Horowitz
- Elai Katz
- Kimberly C. Petillo-Décossard
- Jonathan A. Schaffzin
- Ross Sturman
- Donna M. Bryan
- Mark J. Gelman
- Peter J. Gioello Jr.
- Gail E. Johnston
- Alexander M. Kim
- Samir Kurani
- Peter T. Mazzone
- Lauren Rackow
- Joseph F. Rosati
- Nikolas Rodriguez