Cahill Represents Initial Purchasers in €750 Million Notes Offering for International Game Technology PLC

Date: 06/20/19

Cahill represented the initial purchasers in connection with an offering of €750,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 3.500% senior secured notes due 2026 for International Game Technology PLC, a multinational gambling company that produces slot machines and other gambling technology. Proceeds from the offering were used to refinance existing indebtedness and general corporate purposes.