
Cahill Successfully Resolves Shareholder Litigation Involving Patriot National Inc. and Its Officers and Directors

Date: 07/22/19

A Cahill litigation team, led by partners Brad Bondi and Jason Hall and counsel Peter Linken, successfully reached a preliminary settlement for its officer and director clients in a shareholder suit in which investors accused Patriot National Inc. and certain officers and directors of failing to consider a $475,000,000 takeover offer from insurance software maker Ebix Inc. U.S. District Judge Edgardo Ramos granted preliminary approval for the settlement. The case is In re: Patriot National Inc. Securities Litigation, case number 1:17-cv-01866, in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York.

Attorneys

- Bradley J. Bondi
- Jason M. Hall
- Peter J. Linken