
The Constitutional Right to Vote

Date: 04/12/21

Cahill leadership is proud to stand alongside the leaders of other Am Law 100 firms and general counsels denouncing all efforts to restrict US citizens' constitutional right to vote.

“Equal access to voting is a fundamental right in the United States. Making voting easier, not harder, for all eligible voters should be the goal of every elected official. Election laws that impose unnecessary obstacles and barriers on the right to vote and that disenfranchise underrepresented groups represent a significant step backwards for all Americans. Now, more than ever, courageous leadership is required from our elected officials. We, the undersigned law firm managing partners and corporate general counsel, denounce all efforts to restrict the constitutional right of every eligible American to vote and to participate in our democracy.”

Read more about the joint statement from The American Lawyer.