
Cahill Represents Private Debt Fund with an Investment in a First Lien Credit Facility for a Medical Device Provider

Date: 12/23/21

Cahill represented a private debt fund in connection with an investment in a first lien credit facility for a medical device provider that partners with top hospitals across the nation for the rental, sales, service and asset management of movable medical equipment. Proceeds of the financing were used to fund a dividend and related fees and expenses.

Attorneys

- John Papachristos
- Luisa Marin
- Andrew Schwartz
- Michael P. Kiley