
Cahill Announces New Partner and Counsel Elections

Date: 02/02/22

NEW YORK, February 2, 2022 – Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP announced today that Daniel Anderson, Donna M. Bryan and Andrew Schwartz have been elected to the partnership in Cahill's New York office.

"We are pleased to welcome three stellar corporate lawyers to our partnership," said William M. Hartnett, Cahill's Executive Committee Chairman. "Daniel, Donna and Andrew have proven themselves to be trusted advisors to our clients and provide extraordinary value to our finance and middle-market M&A practices."

Ms. Bryan focuses her practice on corporate finance, mergers and acquisitions and general corporate transactional and related matters. She represents public and private companies in debt offerings, tender offers, consent solicitations, equity investments and M&A transactions. She has also represented underwriters in debt offerings and lenders in syndicated and private credit transactions.

Messrs. Anderson and Schwartz represent leading investment and commercial banks and companies on public and private capital markets and lending transactions, including syndicated institutional loans, private credit transactions, and underwritten debt and equity offerings, as well as tender offers and consent solicitations.

The firm also announced that Nicholas Matuschak, Peter T. Mazzone and Miles Wiley would become counsel to the firm. Additionally, Cahill announced that Damian Bissek would become Executive European Counsel to the firm. Mr. Bissek, resident in the firm's London office, was previously a Managing Director at Credit Suisse where he led the Litigation and Investigations Group for Europe, Middle East and Africa from 2010 until his departure at the end of 2021.
