
Cahill Sponsors the 50th Annual Jefferson Awards presented by Multiplying Good

Date: 11/02/22

Cahill was proud to sponsor the 50th Annual Jefferson Awards presented by Multiplying Good on Wednesday, November 2, 2022 in New York City. Cahill congratulates this year's honorees and joins in celebrating service and those who believe in the power of good.

To learn more, click here.

The list of Jefferson Award recipients includes hundreds of national figures — both public and private — more than 63,000 unsung heroes, and tens of thousands of employees and young people in communities across the country. These individuals represent the good that is happening all around us, in every community across the nation. It is our mission to elevate them and exponentially increase their acts of service.