

Cahill Represents the Lead Arrangers in connection with CD&R's $2.6 Billion Majority Purchase of Roper Technologies, Inc.'s Industrials Business

Date: 11/22/22

Cahill represented the lead arrangers and the administrative agent in connection with first and second lien credit agreement financing to support CD&R's majority acquisition of Roper Technologies, Inc.'s industrials business, now known as Indicor. Roper Technologies is a diversified technology company that provides engineered products and solutions for global niche markets.

Attorneys

- Jonathan J. Frankel
- Davis B. Frank
- Javier Ortiz
- Conor R. Rigsby
- Steven A. Wasserfall