

Cahill Co-Sponsors The Legal Aid Society's 45th Annual Servant of Justice Awards Dinner

Date: 05/11/23

On May 11, Cahill co-sponsored the Legal Aid Society's 45th Annual Servant of Justice Awards Dinner. Representing Cahill at the event were counsel Artemis Anninos, and associates Taylor Elicegui, Connor O'Shea, and Maria Vlasie. Cahill's longstanding partnership with the Legal Aid Society continues, as our attorneys are currently engaged in representing people fleeing violence and abuse around the world to obtain asylum and lawful permanent resident status. Our attorneys also work with the Legal Aid Society's Education Advocacy Project to represent children with disabilities in the New York City Family Court system to receive Early Intervention and educational services. This summer, Cahill Summer Associates will provide assistance on all of our open Legal Aid Society matters.
