
Cahill Represents Lead Arrangers in Millrose's $1.335 Billion Revolving Credit Facility

Date: 02/07/25

Cahill represented the lead arrangers in connection with a $1.335 billion revolving credit facility for Millrose Properties, Inc. following its spin-off from Lennar Corporation.

Proceeds from the revolving credit facility will be used for general corporate purposes.

Millrose engages in land purchases, horizontal development, and homesite option purchase arrangements for homebuilders and developers.
