

Cahill Represents Lead Arrangers in Taboola's $270 Million Credit Facility

Date: 03/18/25

Cahill represented the administrative agent and the lead arrangers and bookrunners in connection with a $270 million revolving credit facility for Taboola, Inc., a subsidiary of Taboola.com Ltd.

The new revolving credit facility replaced Taboola's existing undrawn revolving credit facility, and the borrower used proceeds from the new facility to refinance in full its prior term loan.

Taboola is a technology company that helps businesses grow through performance advertising technology that goes beyond search and social and delivers measurable outcomes at scale.

Attorneys

- Stephen G. Harper
- James J. Clark
- Emelen H. Leonard
- R. Kenneth Panis
- Catherine E. Schaefer