
Cahill Academy Spotlited in Law360

Date: 07/31/25

Cahill Academy, our celebrated training and professional development program, has been profiled by Law360.

Launched in 2022 in response to the shifting legal landscape following the COVID-19 pandemic, Cahill Academy has grown into a robust learning initiative offering over 200 sessions annually to lawyers of all seniority levels. From hands-on legal training to advanced soft skills and leadership coaching, the program reflects our commitment to developing well-rounded lawyers equipped to lead in a modern legal market.

In the article, partner Joe Slotnick and associate Lauren Riddell share how Cahill Academy was designed to not only fill post-pandemic training gaps, but also give associates greater ownership over their development, which has become a hallmark of the program's success.

To learn more about Cahill Academy, click here.

To read the profile, click here (subscription required) or below.

Attorneys

- Josiah M. Slotnick
- Lauren A. Riddell