
Cahill Represents Lead Arranger in Phreesia's $110 Million Credit Facility

Date: 11/12/25

Cahill represented the lead arranger in connection with a $110 million bridge credit facility for Phreesia, Inc. Proceeds from the credit facility will be used for the acquisition of AccessOne Parent Holdings, Inc. by the Borrower. Phreesia provides digital tools to healthcare organizations to better serve patients.

Attorneys

- Timothy B. Howell
- Daniel Anderson
- Nazariy Gavrysh
- Eamon A. Gallagher
- Scott M. Glaser
- Pino Castronovo Henry

Practice

- Banking & Finance