
Peter Williams Quoted in Termgrid Article on AI's Impact on Venture Debt

Date: 04/13/26

Cahill's Private Credit Group Co-Chair and partner, Peter G. Williams, was recently quoted in Termgrid's article, "Venture debt's AI shift: Growth, risk, and a market reset."

The article examines how the rise in AI-centric deals is reshaping the venture debt landscape, influencing capital allocation, deal flow, and lending dynamics across the broader technology, fintech, and SaaS sectors.

Peter notes that "given the uncertainty surrounding AI and software, much of the venture debt market is currently on pause as investors assess the implications of AI for these companies."
