
Cahill Represents the Administrative Agent and Lead Arrangers in Pitney Bowes' Amended Credit Facility

Date: 05/18/26

Cahill represented the administrative agent and lead arrangers in connection with an amendment to Pitney Bowe Inc.'s credit agreement, which extended the maturities of the company's $450 million revolving credit facility and $152 million term A credit facility.

Pitney Bowes is a technology company that offers shipping, mailing, and financial services.

Attorneys

- Ted B. Lacey
- Xin Zhou (Richard) Pan
- Zachary Cantor

Practice

- Banking & Finance