
Cahill Welcomes Marc Shepsman as Corporate Partner: Arrival Boosts the Firm's Market-Leading Finance Practices

Date: 06/08/26

Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP announced today that Marc Shepsman has rejoined the firm as a partner in its Corporate practice group. Marc's practice focuses on advising private equity sponsors, portfolio companies, financial institutions and corporate clients on leveraged finance, acquisition financings, private credit transactions, mergers and acquisitions, and other complex corporate matters across a broad range of industries.

"We're excited to welcome Marc back to Cahill," said Herb Washer, Chair of Cahill's Executive Committee. "Our leveraged finance and corporate practices continue to be strategic priorities for the firm, and Marc's deep market knowledge and strong credentials will further enhance the service we provide our clients."

Marc combines elite leveraged finance experience with deep sponsor-side and transactional insight, advising clients on high-profile acquisitions, complex financings and strategic corporate transactions. He brings an integrated perspective across financing and deal execution, representing sponsors, lenders and corporate borrowers in sophisticated private equity, M&A and financing matters.

Prior to rejoining the firm, Marc spent several years at Cahill, where he developed a broad-based practice focused on capital markets, leveraged finance, and private financing transactions.

"Marc is an exceptional lawyer with outstanding technical skills, commercial judgment, and strong client relationships, and we're thrilled to welcome him back to the firm," said Adam Dworkin, a member of Cahill's Executive Committee and Co-Chair of the firm's Corporate Group. "His experience advising sponsors and financial institutions on sophisticated financing and transactional matters further reinforces Cahill's position as a market leader in this space."

"I'm excited to return to Cahill and reconnect with so many talented colleagues and clients," said Marc Shepsman. "Cahill has an unmatched reputation in leveraged finance, and I look forward to continuing to build a premier corporate practice at the firm."

Marc received his J.D. from Fordham University School of Law and his B.A. from Duke University. He is admitted to practice in New York.
