
Herb Washer and Sam Enzer Named to Crain's 2026 Notable Leaders in Accounting, Consulting & Law List

Date: 08/10/26

Crain's New York Business has named Cahill partners Herb Washer and Sam Enzer to its 2026 Notable Leaders in Accounting, Consulting & Law list.

Each year, Crain's recognizes outstanding executives in the New York metro area who lead major initiatives, promote the growth of their firms, and serve as mentors to the next generation of professionals.

As the Chair of Cahill's Executive Committee, Herb has transformed the firm's growth trajectory, delivered impressive financial results, and preserved its legacy of excellence while maintaining a robust litigation practice representing major financial institutions in some of their most complex legal matters.

Sam is the Founder and Co-Chair of the firm's highly regarded Digital Assets and Emerging Technology practice, CahillNXT, where he advises the world's top cryptocurrency, blockchain, and other emerging technology companies on matters involving decentralized finance (DeFi), artificial intelligence (AI), and data privacy, frequently representing them before the DOJ and SEC.

Herb and Sam's recognition reflects not only their exceptional legal practices and leadership, but also their commitment to innovation, mentorship, and advancing the legal profession.
