
Cahill Represents Initial Purchaser in Jefferson Capital's $100 Million Notes Offering

Date: 08/20/26

Cahill represented the initial purchaser in connection with a rule 144A offering of $100 million aggregate principal amount of 8.25% senior notes due 2030 by Jefferson Capital Holdings, a wholly owned subsidiary of Jefferson Capital, Inc.

Proceeds from the offering were used to repay existing debt and for general corporate purposes.

Jefferson Capital is a leading purchaser and manager of charged-off, insolvency, and active consumer accounts.

Attorneys

- Josiah M. Slotnick
- Matthew E. Rosenthal
- Humza Qureshi
- Qing (Annie) Yuan
- Gabriella Bloom
- Zachary Cantor

Practice

- Capital Markets