Cahill Announces Election of Four New Partners and Three New Counsel

Date: 11/11/26

Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP announced today that Tom Luck, Steven Mungovan, Richard Pan, and Jenny Warshafsky have been elected to the partnership, effective January 1, 2027. In addition, Bruna Amaral, Niechao Bai, and Naz Gavrysh have been promoted to counsel, also effective January 1, 2027.

“We’re thrilled to promote this exceptional group of lawyers, who embody the commitment to excellence that Cahill stands for,” said Herbert S. Washer, chair of Cahill’s Executive Committee. “They put their clients first and bring sharp judgment and creativity in an increasingly complex legal environment. We look forward to their continued success at the firm.”

Tom Luck focuses his practice on litigation, investigations, and risk management matters in the financial services sector, with a particular emphasis on cross-border regulatory and internal investigations.

Steven Mungovan and Richard Pan represent leading investment banks, institutional investors, and commercial banks in connection with public and private capital markets and lending transactions, including high yield bond offerings, equity offerings, bank financings, syndicated institutional loans, asset backed loans, and tender offers in connection with acquisition financings, leveraged buyouts, recapitalizations, project financings, bridge lending and loan commitments, and other financing transactions.

Jenny Warshafsky focuses her practice on liability management, distressed debt, and restructuring matters. With over 15 years of experience, Jenny advises commercial banks, agents, ad hoc lender groups, and direct lenders across the full lifecycle of a deal, from origination to interim liquidity solutions to comprehensive in-court and out-of-court restructurings, workouts, and financings.

Bruna Amaral and Naz Gavrysh focus their practices on matters related to banking and finance and capital markets. They represent investment banks, commercial banks, and institutional investors in a range of financing transactions, including syndicated institutional loans, leveraged buyouts, high yield debt securities, equity securities, and loan commitments.

Niechao Bai advises clients on federal income tax matters, including the tax aspects of leveraged finance, capital markets transactions, private equity and mezzanine investing, and mergers and acquisitions.
