Kamal S. Nesfield Joins Cahill as Leveraged Finance Partner

Date: 11/11/26

NEW YORK – November 11, 2026 – Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP announced today that Kamal S. Nesfield has joined the firm's New York office as a partner in its market-leading leveraged finance practice.

"Kamal's addition reflects Cahill's strategic and selective approach to investing in our core strengths and sustaining our market leadership," said Herb Washer, Chair of Cahill's Executive Committee. "Our focus remains on delivering exceptional counsel that advances our clients' business objectives, and Kamal's experience and longstanding relationships with leading financial institutions will further strengthen our ability to do so."

Kamal brings over 15 years of global leveraged finance experience, including a track record of leading key institutional client relationships at major international law firms. He advises leading investment banks, commercial banks, direct lenders and private credit funds on complex domestic and cross-border financings, spanning leveraged acquisitions, syndicated loans, private credit, high-yield bonds and liability management transactions.

"Kamal brings the pedigree and depth of experience that align with Cahill's position at the forefront of the leveraged finance market," said Joe Slotnick, a member of Cahill's Executive Committee. "His arrival will further strengthen our practice and bring significant benefits to our clients. His proven ability to lead key institutional client relationships will be invaluable as we continue to build on our market leadership and deepen those relationships."

"Kamal is a seasoned leveraged finance attorney who comes strongly recommended by clients," said Adam Dworkin, a member of Cahill's Executive Committee and Co-Chair of the firm's Corporate Group. "He has built an impressive practice with leading financial institutions, and his experience and relationships are an excellent fit for our team and complement our existing capabilities."

Cahill's market-leading leveraged finance practice continues to expand, building on decades of experience advising leading financial institutions on complex financing transactions. The practice has experienced significant growth and increased demand in digital infrastructure and data center financing, where the firm continues to lead the way in structuring and executing first-of-their-kind transactions. Cahill consistently ranks among the leading legal advisors across the industry's major leveraged finance league tables and benchmarks, including #1 rankings in U.S. leveraged finance, leveraged lending and high-yield bonds, underscoring its longstanding industry-leading position and continued role in some of the largest and most sophisticated financing transactions.

"The opportunity to join a firm with Cahill's reputation and market dominance in leveraged finance is a significant milestone in my career," said Kamal Nesfield. "The firm's longstanding relationships with many of the world's leading banking institutions, coupled with its deep experience in complex financing transactions, make this a natural fit for my background and experience. I look forward to building on that foundation and contributing to the continued growth of the firm's practice."

Kamal earned his J.D. from Howard University School of Law and his B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania. He is admitted to practice in New York.

Attorney

- Kamal S. Nesfield

Practices

- Banking & Finance
- Capital Markets

Office

- New York