
Cahill Represents Grant Group in Sale of Controlling Interest of St. John's Center

Date: 01/04/13

Cahill served as co-counsel to Eugene M. Grant and the Grant Group in the sale of the 50.1% controlling interest of mega-complex St. John's Center to an investor group comprised of Fortress Investment Group, Atlas Capital Group and Westbrook Partners. The St. John's Center, located at 550 Washington Street in New York City, spans three blocks and is considered one of New York's largest floor plates. In 2006, Cahill also represented the Grant family in the sale of a portion of the building to Westbrook Partners.

Attorney

- Mark J. Gelman