Cahill's capital markets and lending practice has earned high rankings in the latest edition of the International Financial Law1000 (IFLR1000), including the only Tier one ranking in the Capital Markets-high yield debt category.

In the guide, Cahill received praise for being the "front runner in the industry" by both clients and peers for its work in the high yield debt market, and added that the firm's capital markets and lending come as a "combination package, and for good reason."

Partners Jim Clark, Bill Hartnett, Jonathan Schaffzin, Susanna Suh, Corey Wright and Dan Zubkoff were named as leading lawyers.

The IFLR1000 is a definitive guide to the world's leading financial law firms in more than 100 markets worldwide. The results of the research are based on extensive and rigorous independent research that includes data relating to firms, interviews, client and competitor feedback and market analysis from the past twelve months.
