Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP has been recognized by The Legal 500 US 2011 as a leading law firm in: Finance: Bank Lending, Finance: Capital Markets: Debt, High Yield Debt and Equity offerings; Mergers, Acquisitions and Buyouts; Securities Litigation; White-collar criminal defense; Insurance and Telecoms and Broadcast: regulatory categories. Over a third of Cahill's partners have also been recommended.

Cahill has been ranked within the bank lending category based on client comments that the team is "regarded by clients as a cut above the competition." The guide also endorses Cahill for its work in the debt and equity capital markets, with a first-tier ranking in high yield debt. The editorial states: "Well known for its dominance in the high-yield debt arena, Cahill's heavyweight practice has an enormous deal flow and particular expertise in advising manager-side clients." On the equity side, Cahill is recommended for a "steady equity capital markets practice, with particular strength advising underwriters."

The Legal 500 US has also ranked Cahill as a first-tier firm in middle market M&A (under $500 million) based on client comments that the firm is "a cut above the rest, extremely responsive, experienced and knowledgeable, providing a wide range of lawyers in various practice areas to help with various aspects of a project."

On the litigation side, Cahill's recent work in securities litigation, insurance and white-collar criminal defense is recognized, noting that: "... the team particularly excels at high-stakes matters where there is an existential threat to the defendant and on matters at the intersection with public policy concerns."

Cahill's Washington D.C.-based communications practice has also been ranked by The Legal 500 US in the Telecoms and broadcast: regulatory category, noting the team's recent accomplishments in the communications sectors in regulatory, litigation and transactional areas.

About The Legal 500 series
