Date: 04/04/14

Brian T. Markley's work has been recognized by Global Investigations Review, which named him to its inaugural "40 Under 40" list of the world's leading investigations lawyers under the age of 40.

After reviewing the "volume and caliber" of nominations from leading firms around the world, Global Investigations Review selected "the best of the first generation of global investigations lawyers," based largely on the significance of the matters they work on and feedback from clients and other practitioners. Markley has handled numerous high profile investigations for Fortune 500 companies and their Boards of Directors, and is currently working on an investigation on behalf of the Audit Committee of Walmart, arising out of allegations of bribery in Mexico. In addition to his investigative work, Markley handles a broad range of other matters, including commercial disputes, securities class actions and media law.

The Global Investigations Review "40 under 40" list of the world's leading investigations lawyers includes practitioners from 33 law firms, based in: Beijing, Calgary, Dublin, Düsseldorf, Hong Kong, London, Moscow, New York, San Francisco, São Paulo, and Washington, DC.

Global Investigations Review is a daily publication that covers the latest developments in the law and practice of cross-border investigations: anti-bribery and corruption, financial services misconduct, antitrust, fraud, money laundering and tax.
