Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP has been ranked 13th among Am Law 100 firms in The American Lawyer's Summer Associate Satisfaction survey. According to the publication, this annual survey measures the satisfaction of summer associates employed by the nation's law firms. Firms are scored based on Summer Associate ratings of a firm's qualities, including interest and satisfaction with the work, benefits and compensation, interaction with partners, training, and acceptance of full time offers.

Earlier this year, Cahill was ranked among the "Best law firms to work for" when it comes to compensation, business outlook and transparency by Vault.com. Vault also recognized Cahill as among the "most fun" summer associate programs.
