

Cahill Named as Finalist for 3 Deal of the Year Awards by The M&A Advisor

Date: 10/10/17

The M&A Advisor has named Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP as a finalist for the Deal of the Year award in the following three categories: Financials (over $250MM) for its representation of Arch Capital Group in its acquisition of United Guaranty Corporation from AIG; Utilities for its representation of The Empire District Electric Company in its acquisition by Liberty Utilities (an Algonquin Power company); and Deal Financing for its representation of the financing sources in the debt financing of the Dell-EMC merger, a nearly $50 billion financing which included the fourth largest corporate bond offering ($20 billion) ever completed.

In its 16th year, the annual M&A Advisor Awards recognize the leading dealmakers, firms and transactions of the year while celebrating the creativity, perseverance and ingenuity of the M&A industry's professionals. The finalists were selected by an independent panel of judges who will now focus their attention on the challenging task of selecting the ultimate award winners who will be announced at the Awards Gala on Monday, November 13 at the Metropolitan Club in Washington DC.

The M&A Advisor was founded in 1998 to offer insights and intelligence on mergers and acquisitions through the industry's leading publication.
