Date: 04/10/19

On April 10, 2019, Cahill received the “2019 Pro Bono Award” from The Door, a youth development services center. The award ceremony took place at The Door’s Joining in Justice event. Since 2008, Cahill attorneys through our partnership with The Door, have been providing pro bono legal services to clients under the age of 21, including individual representation of abandoned or abused youths. Cahill attorneys also run an “Emancipation Clinic” every other week in which we assist young people with a range of issues, including the legal emancipation process and helping students obtain college financial aid and SNAP benefits.
