
Cahill's Capital Markets Practice Profiled as a 2019 Law360 Practice Group of the Year

Date: 01/24/20

In connection with recognition as a Law360 Practice Group of the Year, Cahill's Capital Markets practice was profiled by the publication. The profile highlights the firm's strength in debt finance, showcasing how we guided our clients through massive and multilayered deals in 2019.

The profile focuses on a select few deals "spanning from Comcast's $27 billion bond to fund its acquisition of British broadcaster Sky to Netflix bonds encompassing two continents and Blackstone Group's buyout of Refinitiv."

"This is not your sort of standard leverage-financed transaction and, even in the context of a very high-profile, important investment-grade execution, banks turn to us and trust Cahill to help with their execution," Doug Horowitz, Capital Markets & Lending partner, told Law360 in regard to the Comcast deal.

The profile also notes how the collaboration between the deal teams in New York and London helps clients on whose loyalty the firm relies. "Many of our clients and deal participants will tell you that we have a knack for taking our broad cross-market experiences together with that unmatched experience representing banks in leveraged finance deals to help our clients think through those challenging questions," he said.
