IFLR1000 has named partner Jenn Ezring as one of this year's Women Leaders, recognizing her as one of the leading female transactional lawyers in the world. IFLR1000 Women Leaders have impressive track records and are consistently recommended by clients and peers for the quality of their advice and service.

Each year the IFLR1000 undertakes research evaluating lawyers and firms on the basis of transactional experience and market feedback. During the process our research team in Hong Kong, London and New York evaluates thousands of submissions and survey data of thousands of client referees and peers, and conduct hundreds of interviews before nominating individuals for Women Leaders.
